

M A C A U
LAW JOURNAL

SPECIAL ISSUE

THE BASIC LAWS:
PROBLEMS AND PERSPECTIVES

2 0 0 2

INDEX

Preface by the Chairman of the Board of the Macao Institute of International and Comparative Law	5
Preface by the Dean of the Faculty of Law of the University of Hong Kong	7
About the Authors	9
The death penalty in Macao and Hong Kong (in the year 2000) Jill Cotrell	11
The East-West division on individual rights: implications for Hong Kong and Macao Richard Cullen	31
Penal procedure and the protection of human rights in Macao Maria Leonor Assunção	41
Air agreements in Hong Kong: present and future status Gary Heilbronn	53
Extradition and the SAR's after reunification Janice Brabyn	79
The Macao Special Administrative Region and interregional judicial co-operation Jorge Costa Oliveira and José Gamito Carrilho	93
Some aspects of judicial administration E. L. G. Tyler	105

The practice of law in Macao Amélia António	111
Judicial organisation in Macao (brief reflections) Sebastião Póvoas	121
One country two systems: the historical position, present operation and future development (abstract) Wang Zhenmin	133
One country two systems: the two perspectives Benny Tai	143
International and constitutional limitations on the autonomy of the Macao Special Administrative Region Eduardo Nascimento Cabrita	167
The transfer of sovereignty and democratisation in Hong Kong and Macao Yash Ghai	205
The Basic Law: the conventional model and constituent practice Francisco Gonçalves Pereira	267
The concept of “one country, two systems” and its application to Hong Kong, Taiwan and Macao Albert H. Y. Chen	277
Macao’s political system during the transition: continuity or convergence? Paulo Cardinal	287
Problems of legal transition: similarities and differences between Macao and Hong Kong, and relevant policies Mi Jian	305